Your style. Your choice.

*Individual style and personal class have nothing to do with coincidence.
On the contrary, they are the result of good decisions and right perspectives.
The choice is yours when it comes to the aesthetic expression of your character.
Meet the stylists of German writing culture. Discover the many facets of the STAEDTLER Initium collection. Choose between brilliant high-grade resin, precious wood, elegant aluminium or finest leather.*

Resina

Exceptional aesthetics.

Impressive and distinctive in appearance. The Resina line combines cool design with a wide variety of colours. The elaborate processing of the high-grade resin results in an intriguingly iridescent effect.

Lignum

Different in a special way.

Whatever your expectations, the Lignum line will surpass them. You will get a writing instrument that is unparalleled. The result will always be one of a kind thanks to the choice between two high-quality woods – plum or maple – whose individual grain gives these products their unique character. No two writing instruments are alike – for a uniqueness that lasts.

Metallum

Cool elegance.

No other high-tech material unites modern zeitgeist, technical finesse and functional perfection quite as elegantly as refined anodised aluminium.

The hand-brushed surface gives the Metallum line a unique velvety feel and creates an intriguing contrast in combination with the matt, chrome-plated metal fittings.

It is, in itself, an expression of superior quality, exacting standards and state-of-the art modern design.

J.S. Staedtler Collection

Exceptional characters are often distinguished by their unique nature and stunning appearance. Their performance speaks for itself. The exclusive J.S. Staedtler collection is synonymous with expert craftsmanship and draws both on the company's long tradition in manufacturing as well as on the inspirational spirit of its founder Johann Sebastian Staedtler.

Made using only the finest of materials, they are exquisite, truly unique writing instruments – character performers.

Princeps

A real character, a select masterpiece.

Uniqueness is a question of attitude. We have created the Princeps line as a finely tuned balance between skilled craftsmanship and innovative spirit – luxury and elegance not only in appearance, but in character too.

Engravings

A name engraved on the STAEDTLER Premium writing instrument adds an individual touch. You can have most STAEDTLER Premium writing instruments engraved with a name. Unless otherwise specified, we will engrave your name in block letters 90 degrees right of the clip. Please note that engravings on the clip are not possible.

Diamond engraving

In diamond engraving, a diamond is used to remove the surface of the material to be engraved. Diamond engraving is only possible on metal. STAEDTLER writing instrument: Metallum barrel and all metal caps of the Initium and J.S. series.
